

Factsheet

Vannraj, a luxury safari lodge nestled within 22 acres of dry deciduous forest and effortlessly blends in with the surrounding landscape and indigenous vegetation. The property celebrates the best of regional architecture, culture and cuisine giving guests a taste of authentic central Indian hospitality. The native architecture of nearby villages inspires Vannraj's muted earthy colours and sloped tile roofs. At the heart of the property is a large pool with a sunken bar and spacious grasslands that provides the perfect setting for guests to relax and unwind after a rugged day in the jungle.
