Vannraj resort at Pench poised to upgrade luxurious stays

Located around 70 km from Nagpur, the Pench National Park is a wildlife enthusiast's paradise with its rich flora and fauna. Over the years, to cater to these wildlife enthusiasts, many resorts have been established at Pench. While many resorts are budget resorts meant for the dedicated wildlife lovers who like to visit the jungle very often, there are selective resorts, which offer luxury and peace right in the middle of the jungle. One such resort at Pench is the luxury safari lodge – Vannraj – which literally means the 'The king of the forest.' The 'Nation Next' takes its visitors on a pictorial tour of the beautiful, royal and luxurious Vannraj resort.

Vannraj is a luxury safari lodge situated at the border of Pench National Park and is spread across 20 acres of land. The resort is owned by Ramprasad and Kshitiz Agrawal, who are the directors of Pench Tiger Retreat Private Limited. The speciality of Vannraj is that it is located within a dense forest, having around 15,000 trees, in addition to a vast stretch of bamboo plantation. 'Vannraj' literally means 'the king of the forest,' the architecture and interiors of the resort are a mix of royal and new-age designs. People who visit Vannraj can avail three types of accommodations including Traditional Cottages, The Machan Suites and The Vannraj Villa.

The restaurant at Vannraj can cater to 100 to 150 people at a time. The sumptuous spread which is prepared from chemical-free products sourced from Vannraj's large organic farm will be served to you on the table. The dining venues apart from the restaurant also include a pool deck and a wooden deck suspended over a lake. The lobby at the resort is spacious and also consists of a library. The conference hall at Vannraj, which is meticulously designed, can accommodate 50 to 60 people at a time. Apart from a big swimming pool, there is a billiard table, a table tennis table, a badminton court and a foosball table. Like the resort claims, there's something for everybody at Vannraj!
